

Executive Proclamation State of South Dakota Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Lloyd B. Norlin, a native South Dakotan, was born and raised in Sioux Falls, attending Washington High School, and then received his college degree in music from Northwestern College in Aberdeen, South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, While at Northwestern College, Lloyd Norlin was active in the choral programs, composing music for the "Waa-Mu" shows on campus; and,

WHEREAS, "One Fine September" was one of Lloyd Norlin's early college compositions which was noticed by producers and directors in Chicago, New York and Hollywood; and,

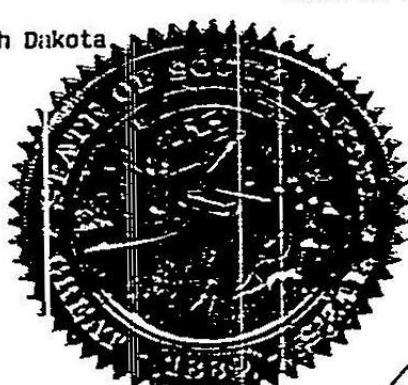

WHEREAS, Lloyd Norlin's career as a celebrated composer was interrupted during World War II when he flew in the air force, gaining military recognition during the Italian campaign; and,

WHEREAS, Lloyd Norlin has contributed songs which have earned him state and national recognition, and South Dakota's Centennial year offers an opportunity for citizens of this great state to join with the community of Sioux Falls in saluting this man of music:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 6, 1989, as

LLOYD B. NORLIN DAY

In South Dakota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Tenth Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

Joyce Hazeltine
JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE